DETAILED ACTION

Election/Restrictions

1. Restriction to one of the following inventions is required under 35 U.S.C. 121:
 - I. Claims 1 – 20, drawn to a mask, classified in class 430, subclass 5.
 - II. Claims 21 – 31, drawn to a semiconductor device, classified in class 257, subclass 314.
 - III. Claims 32 – 48, drawn to an apparatus for coating a substrate, classified in class 118, subclass 723.
 - IV. Claims 49 – 80 and 86 – 112, drawn to a method of manufacturing a semiconductor device, classified in class 438, subclass 778.
 - V. Claims 81 – 85, drawn to a coating method, classified in class 427, subclass 249.1.

The inventions are distinct, each from the other because of the following reasons:

2. Inventions IV, V and III are related as process and apparatus for its practice. The inventions are distinct if it can be shown that either: (1) the process as claimed can be practiced by another materially different apparatus or by hand, or (2) the apparatus as claimed can be used to practice another and materially different process. (MPEP § 806.05(e)). In this case, the methods of IV and V can be practiced by a materially different apparatus such as a plasma enhanced CVD apparatus that is either DC or AC energized.
3. Inventions I, II, IV and V are related as process of making and product made. The inventions are distinct if either or both of the following can be shown: (1) that the process as claimed can be used to make other and materially different product or (2) that the product as claimed can be made by another and materially different process (MPEP § 806.05(f)). In the instant case, the products of groups I and II can be made by a materially different process than IV or V such as low pressure CVD.

4. Inventions I, II, and III are related as apparatus and product made. The inventions in this relationship are distinct if either or both of the following can be shown: (1) that the apparatus as claimed is not an obvious apparatus for making the product and the apparatus can be used for making a different product or (2) that the product as claimed can be made by another and materially different apparatus (MPEP § 806.05(g)). In this case, the products of groups I and II can be made by a materially different apparatus such as an APCVD apparatus.

5. Inventions I and II are related as combination and subcombination. Inventions in this relationship are distinct if it can be shown that (1) the combination as claimed does not require the particulars of the subcombination as claimed for patentability, and (2) that the subcombination has utility by itself or in other combinations (MPEP § 806.05(c)). In the instant case, the combination as claimed does not require the particulars of the subcombination as claimed because the claims of group I do not recite the details of group II including the structure of the memory device. The subcombination has separate utility such as a switching device.

6. Inventions IV and V are related as combination and subcombination. Inventions in this relationship are distinct if it can be shown that (1) the combination as claimed does not require the particulars of the subcombination as claimed for patentability, and (2) that the subcombination has utility by itself or in other combinations (MPEP § 806.05(c)). In the instant case, the combination as claimed does not require the particulars of the subcombination as claimed because the claims of group V do not recited the details of group IV including the formation of a device on a substrate. The subcombination has separate utility such as transparent windows in other device structures.

7. Because these inventions are distinct for the reasons given above and have acquired a separate status in the art as shown by their different classification, restriction for examination purposes as indicated is proper.

8. Applicant is reminded that upon the cancellation of claims to a non-elected invention, the inventorship must be amended in compliance with 37 CFR 1.48(b) if one or more of the currently named inventors is no longer an inventor of at least one claim remaining in the application. Any amendment of inventorship must be accompanied by a request under 37 CFR 1.48(b) and by the fee required under 37 CFR 1.17(i).
